

Driving directions from Johannesburg (5 hours)

Depart the airport heading South on the N3 following the signs initially towards Johannesburg and then towards Durban, there will be a Toll booth or two too pass through but they are inexpensive, they only take cash or South African credit cards.

Remain on the N3 for 123 km from the airport and you will see an Engen Fuel Station on your left just before Villiers. A good stop for a coffee and snack should you feel the need.

After this Engen Fuel Station keep following the N3 South and after a couple of Kms you will pass through the Wilge Toll Plaza. 35ks from the Toll booth you will see a flat topped large hill in front of you at your 11 o'clock position. Look for and take the exit LEFT to R34. In about 1km turn left again and follow About 15km until you reach a T- Junction, turn RIGHT still on the R34 and after another 15km turn LEFT still on R34 towards VREDE

After another 15km just before the town of VREDE turn RIGHT still on R34 towards MEMEL and NEWCASTLE. It is about 100km to Newcastle from this point.

Entering Newcastle you will hit a T-Junction at a traffic light with a shopping centre and several fast food outlets on your left, go RIGHT at this traffic light and follow the road through the centre of the town. Stay on this road through several traffic lights until you pass the big shopping mall and Casino on your right. Soon after you will hit another T-Junction with traffic lights, turn RIGHT on N11 towards LADYSMITH.

After 38km turn LEFT on R68 towards DUNDEE. Entering Dundee you will pass through three sets of traffic lights then the road will turn left into the Main Street. Best to fill up with fuel in Dundee.

Stay on the Main Street and pass thru another three sets of traffic lights and straight down the hill out of town. Follow this road passing the Talana Museum on your left.

About 4-5 kms past the Talana Museum take the tar road (R68)on your right to NQUTU and BABANANGO

Follow this road for approx 25kms then take the DIRT road on your right to Rorke's Drift. It is signposted. This road can be a bit rough in places so take it easy here.

Follow this road until you reach a T junction and turn LEFT again towards Rorke's Drift. It is about 10-11kms To Rorke's Drift.
